Date: 30th June 2025

Organized by: Literary Committee, SAMC&H, Jigani

As a continuation of the month-long literary celebrations under Sahitya Pallava, a series of intellectually engaging competitions were conducted on Monday, 30th June 2025, exclusively for students.

The day began with the Pick and Act competition held from 11:00 AM to 11:30 AM, coordinated by Dr. Athira, Dr. Sughanya, and Dr. Mukesh. Students showcased spontaneous creativity and theatrical expression, bringing humour and insight to various themes.

Following this, a stimulating Debate session was held on the topic "Integration of Ayurveda with Modern Medicine". Participants presented well-researched arguments both for and against the motion. The event was meticulously coordinated by Dr. Netravathi and Dr. Ananyalakshmi, fostering critical thinking and a balanced perspective among students.

In the afternoon session, an exciting Quiz Competition tested the participants' knowledge across literature, science, and general awareness. The quiz was conducted by Dr. Anupama Janakiram, with Dr. Ramyashee and Dr. Rashmi Bhat managing the scoring and technical aspects.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation and excellent coordination, making it a successful continuation of Sahitya Pallava 2025. The Literary Committee extends heartfelt gratitude to all the coordinators, student participants, and supporting staff for their contributions.
